1. Explain why the function $f(x, y) = \frac{e^{x+y}}{1+3x-2y}$ is differentiable at the point $(0, 0)$.
(b) Find its linearization at this point.
(c) Use this linearization to estimate the value of $f(0.1, -0.05)$. 